

Choki Dhani* Fair

By Sachin Medilall

It was a bright and colourful night.
With acrobats, dancers and magicians in sight.

There were drums being played,
Seeing an acrobat cycle on a high rope, I stayed!

It was fun watching magic tricks,
While sitting on some bricks!

I sat on the floor and ate tasty food.
The smell of pudding put me in a good mood.

These are the things that I can share,
From my magical evening at the Choki Dhani fair!

\ Choki Dhani is the name of the fair I went to in India.*
