

To: My dearest daddy Hamilton

My Daddy

You hug me so tight right in the night,

You are the light clarify my sight.

You fight for what's wrong with all your might,

I dream one day you are the king who do the right.

Before sunrise, birds tweet their songs.

You join the choir and sing in tune.

When the clock goes Dong Dong...

You go to work,

I go to school. Maths and numbers to do at work.

Back from work,

You stretch your arms for a bug hug

I tug at your sleeves.

Now, it's time to play.

We play 'Dead Fish'. You lay still not a move is moved.

You win!

Dinner time. Ring Ring!

Burger, veggies and onion ring,

You teach me tips to eat nicely.

Finally time to sleep,

You don't even peep

You are doze asleep

Night-night, daddy.
